About the Organizers

B.G.P.S.

Bhartiya Gramin Punarrachana Sanstha (BGPS) stresses on the importance of higher education and learning. It is one of the driving forces of socio-economic development and at the same time it is also the focal point of learning in our society. Moreover it is the principal instrument for passing on the accumulated cultural experience and scientific knowledge of humanity to our young generation.

M.S.C.W.

Maharashtra State Commission for Women was established on January 25, 1993 Under the Maharashtra Act, No. XV of 1993. The main focus area identified by the eradication of violence against women. As soon as any incident related to the exploitation/ molestation/ atrocities against women comes to the notice of the commission.

In this year we are conducting National Conference on women empowerment with the collaboration of Maharashtra State commission for Women, Mumbai.

About the National Conference

The National Conference is focused on prospectus and challenges of women empowerment in the dimension of Gender equality, social issues regarding women empowerment, role of civic society and NGO's in achieving Women Empowerment in India. Women population constitutes around 50% of the world population but they are unaware about different laws and acts provided in the Indian Constitution for their progress and development. So this conference will focus on those issues.
